MICHAEL ILITCH OWNER/GOVERNOR

Michael Ilitch is a proven leader in the restaurant, sports and entertainment industries. Along with his wife, Marian, he grew one Little Caesars pizza restaurant into an international pizza chain with restaurants on five continents. Success in the pizza business for more than 50 years has allowed Ilitch to take advantage of other business opportunities.

In 1982, he and Marian purchased the struggling Red Wings and have turned the team into a Stanley Cup champion. During the Ilitch ownership, the team has won 15 divisional championships, six Presidents' Trophies, five Campbell Bowls and four Stanley Cups. The Red Wings have played postseason hockey for 18 consecutive years – the best record in all of professional sports.

Other Ilitch-owned businesses include: Blue Line Foodservice Distribution, Champion Foods, Little Caesars Pizza Kit Fundraising Program, Olympia Entertainment, Olympia Development, Ilitch Holdings and Uptown Entertainment. Michael Ilitch also owns the Detroit Tigers.

MARIAN ILITCH OWNER/SECRETARY-TREASURER

Marian Ilitch is one of the leading entrepreneurs in the food and entertainment businesses and has been recognized as one of the most successful businesswomen in the country. Marian and her husband, Michael, grew a suburban Detroit mom-and-pop pizza business into Little Caesars Pizza, an international pizza chain with restaurants on five continents.

Marian and her husband expanded their business interests when they purchased the underperforming Red Wings in 1982. Fifteen divisional championships, six Presidents' Trophies, five Campbell Bowls and four Stanley Cups later, Detroit earned the moniker, Hockeytown, and the Red Wings have become the team to beat.

Other Ilitch-owned businesses include: Blue Line Foodservice Distribution, Champion Foods, Little Caesars Pizza Kit Fundraising Program, Olympia Entertainment, Olympia Development, Ilitch Holdings, Inc. and Uptown Entertainment. Marian Ilitch also owns MotorCity Casino Hotel in Detroit.

CHRISTOPHER ILITCH

President & CEO, Ilitch Holdings, Inc.

Christopher Ilitch, president and CEO of Ilitch Holdings, Inc., directs the company that provides professional services to the businesses owned by Michael and/or Marian Ilitch. These entities include: Little Caesar Enterprises, Blue Line Foodservice Distribution, Detroit Red Wings, Detroit Tigers, Champion Foods, Olympia Entertainment, Olympia Development, Uptown Entertainment, and the Little Caesars Pizza Kit Fundraising Program. The total combined revenue of Ilitch companies was $2.0 billion in 2008.

Christopher has been, and continues to be, a force in the strategic planning for the future growth of all Ilitch companies. Since taking on the role of president at Ilitch Holdings, total combined revenue for the Ilitch companies has grown 150 percent from $800 million in 2000, to $2.0 billion in 2008.

Active in civic and community organizations, Christopher is chairman of Ilitch Charities and is on the board of directors of the Detroit Economic Club. He serves as chairman of the Detroit Metro Convention and Visitors Bureau board of directors and is a board member and a member of the executive committee for the Detroit Regional Chamber and Business Leaders for Michigan (formerly Detroit Renaissance). He is also a member of the Detroit chapter of the Young Presidents' Organization.

In addition, Ilitch served as chairman of the hospitality committee for the 2009 NCAA Final Four Men's Basketball Tournament. He was also a guiding force behind the hugely successful 2005 Major League Baseball All-Star event in Detroit and was a member of the Super Bowl XL host committee.

Ilitch graduated from the University of Michigan in 1987 with a bachelor's degree in business administration. He and his wife, Kelle, have two children and reside in metro Detroit.

JIM DEVELLANO

Senior Vice-President/ Alternate Governor

Entering his 28th season with the Detroit Red Wings and his 43rd overall in the National Hockey League, Jim Devellano continues to be a driving force behind Detroit's success, as well as a strong influence in the evolution and improvement of the league itself. Devellano can be credited with carefully building Detroit's 1997, 1998, 2002 and 2008 Stanley Cup Championship teams through the Entry Draft, savvy trades and aggressive free agent acquisitions.

He choreographed the Red Wings steady rise into the powerful club that has reached the Stanley Cup Final six times and lifted the coveted Cup in triumph four times, giving Devellano his fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh Stanley Cup rings (three with New York Islanders and four with Detroit).

Devellano was the first individual hired by owners Mike and Marian Ilitch after purchasing the Red Wings in June, 1982. He was the team's general manager for eight seasons before ascending to his current position as senior vice-president on July 13, 1990. An excellent judge of talent throughout his 43 years in the NHL, Devellano believes that building a solid foundation begins with a capable scouting staff and strong Entry Draft selections. Evidence of the wisdom in this plan can be seen in Devellano's first draft as Red Wings general manager when he tabbed future Hall-of-Famer Steve Yzerman in the 1983 Entry Draft to be the cornerstone of the franchise.

Devellano was one of the first NHL general managers to assemble a strong European scouting staff back in 1984, a progressive move that has produced several Red Wing standouts including Russians Sergei Fedorov, Slava Kozlov, Vladimir Konstantinov and Pavel Datsyuk, and Swedes Nicklas Lidstrom, Tomas Holmstrom, Henrik Zetterberg, Johan Franzen and Niklas Kronwall.

Through the course of Devellano's tenure with the Red Wings, Detroit has participated in ten conference finals (1987, '88, '95, '96, '97, '98, '02, '07, '08, '09) and six Stanley Cup Finals (1995, '97, '98, '02, '08, '09), collected six Presidents' Trophies (1995, '96, '02, '04, '06, '08), eight regular-season Western Conference championships (1994, '95, '96, '02, '04, '06, '07, '08) and 15 division championships (1988, '89, '92, '94, '95, '96, '99, '01, '02, '03, '04, '06, '07, '08, '09).

Devellano is the proud owner of 14 championship rings. His impressive collection includes: seven Stanley Cup rings (N.Y. Islanders 1980, 1981, 1982 and Detroit 1997, 1998, 2002 and 2008), three Calder Cup championship rings in the American Hockey League with Adirondack (1986, 1989 and 1992), two Adams Cup championship rings in the Central Hockey League (Fort Worth 1978 and Indianapolis 1982), and one Riley Cup championship ring in the East Coast Hockey League (Toledo 1994). Devellano also added a Major League Baseball American League championship ring with the Detroit Tigers in 2006.

Devellano's lengthy tenure as head of hockey operations for the Red Wings is second only to the 35 years served by the late Jack Adams, the legendary GM credited with building the Red Wing dynasty of the 1950's. In addition to his duties as senior vice-president, Devellano serves as the team's alternate on the NHL's Board of Governors.

His litany of accomplishments while in Detroit earned him induction into the Michigan Sports Hall of Fame in 2006.

He has been instrumental in many historical decisions in the National Hockey League. In 1980, it was Devellano who campaigned to have the annual NHL Entry Draft moved from a hotel ballroom into various NHL arenas, transforming the draft into an exciting fan-friendly event for fans of all NHL teams to witness what occurs with each team as the draft takes place. Devellano was also responsible for bringing the Entry Draft to the United States for the very first time on June 13, 1987 at Joe Louis Arena. More recently, it was at Devellano's suggestion that the NHL instituted a new overtime format beginning with the 1999-2000 season that includes skating four aside as well as one point for each team following a five-minute overtime and an additional point if a team is victorious in overtime.

Having served as a teacher and mentor to numerous front office personnel over the years, Devellano's influence has reached several NHL clubs. Currently there are four NHL general managers who have succeeded under Devellano's tutelage - Detroit General Manager Ken Holland, Darcy Regier of the Buffalo Sabres, Don Waddell of the Atlanta Thrashers and Scott Howson of the Columbus Blue Jackets.

Devellano, 66, did not play professional hockey, but rose through the ranks in various capacities in his native Toronto. Joining former Red Wings coach Scotty Bowman, he became a scout with the St. Louis Blues in 1967 when the NHL expanded from six to 12 teams. Also, it was Devellano's strong recommendation to owner Mike Ilitch that led to Scotty Bowman's hiring by the Wings.

Joining the New York Islanders as a scout when that club was founded in 1972, Devellano's scouting skills helped build a team that won four consecutive Stanley Cup titles (1980-83). It was Devellano who highly recommended that Islanders GM, Bill Torrey, hire Al Arbour to coach the club. Arbour was captain of the St. Louis Blues when Devellano scouted for that franchise. The recommendation turned out better than expected as Arbour guided the Islanders to four consecutive Stanley Cup Championships. In 1979-80, he became general manager of the Islanders' Indianapolis (CHL) farm club and was named Minor League Executive of the Year by The Hockey News. He returned to New York in 1981 as the Islanders' assistant general manager.

Devellano is currently a member of the International Society of Hockey Research and is part owner of the Indianapolis Indians (AAA) baseball team. He recently authored a book, "The Road To Hockeytown", that chronicles his more than 40 incredible years in the game of hockey.

On a personal level, in 2003 Devellano set up two private foundations supporting mostly children's charities in the United States and Canada.

In June of 2001 Mike Ilitch named Devellano Senior Vice-President of MLB's Detroit Tigers. Devellano resides in Detroit and Sarasota, Florida.

KEN HOLLAND

Executive Vice President/ General Manager

Ken Holland enters his 13th season as general manager of the Red Wings and his 27th year with the organization. He is arguably the most successful general manager in all of professional sports over the last twelve years. Since Holland was appointed to his current position in July 1997, the Red Wings have won more games (638) than any other franchise in the National Hockey League, including 544 regular-season victories and 94 playoff wins. Under Holland's watch the Red Wings have won three Stanley Cups (1998, 2002, 2008), four Presidents' Trophies (2002, 2004, 2006, 2008), nine Central Division titles (1999, 2001, 2002, 2003, 2004, 2006, 2007, 2008, 2009) and five regular-season Western Conference titles (2002, 2004, 2006, 2007, 2008).

Holland's last four seasons have been perhaps his most impressive as an NHL general manager. After drastically cutting payroll to comply with NHL's new salary cap, he assembled a team that won the second most games in Red Wings' history (58) and the Presidents' Trophy in 2005-06. The Red Wings followed that campaign with a 50-19-13 regular season and a trip to the Western Conference Final in 2006-07. In 2007-08, the Red Wings posted a 54-21-7 record, and captured the sixth Presidents' Trophy and the 11th Stanley Cup championship in franchise history. This past season, the Red Wings' made NHL history by recording their ninth consecutive 100-point season and became only the third team in NHL history to record 50 or more wins in four consecutive seasons. The Wings finished the 2008-09 campaign with a 51-21-10 mark.

Holland solidified his respect throughout the league in March of 1999 as he orchestrated one of the most amazing 24-hour periods in NHL history during trade deadline day in his second season as Red Wings' general manager. When the dust had settled, Detroit had acquired Chris Chelios, Ulf Samuelsson, Wendel Clark and Bill Ranford. While the Wings' were unable to capture the 1999 Stanley Cup, Holland's moves were widely regarded as both sound and brilliant, and he was applauded for providing Detroit with the best possible chance of winning again.

Just two seasons later, Holland pulled off another flurry of free agent singings in the summer of 2001. It started May 24, when Holland secured the first of four veteran players by signing defenseman Fredrik Olausson out of the Swiss Hockey League. At the time, Olausson had 14 seasons of NHL experience and was playing for Bern of Swiss league in 2000-01. Holland would keep the Winged Wheel soundly rolling along as on July 1, he would trade forward Slava Kozlov and a first round draft pick to the Buffalo Sabres for elite goaltender Dominik Hasek. The very next day, Holland signed free agent forward Luc Robitaille to a two-year deal with a club option for a third season. Finally, on August 22, Holland inked Brett Hull to a two-year contract. These four high-profile players fit extremely well into the organization and contributed tremendously to Detroit's overall success in the regular season, as well as the 2002 Stanley Cup championship.

The 11th GM in club history, Holland has also worked diligently throughout his tenure to secure new contracts with many Red Wings players. Holland fully believes in keeping the continuity of the team intact to ensure the future success of the franchise. Evidence of this is shown in his ability to secure home-grown stars to new deals such as Nicklas Lidstrom, Pavel Datsyuk, Henrik Zetterberg and Johan Franzen. Holland's ability to persuade veteran stars such as Brian Rafalski and Brad Stuart to sign with Detroit continues to make the Red Wings a perennial Stanley Cup contender.

Holland's role includes overseeing all aspects of hockey operations including all matters relating to player personnel, development, contract negotiations and player movements. Due to his numerous responsibilities as GM, Holland now plays a less prominent role at the NHL Entry Draft, after being the main point person during his seven years as amateur scouting director. In that capacity, he can be credited with selecting some of Detroit's best young talent, including Vyacheslav Kozlov, Darren McCarty, Chris Osgood and Martin Lapointe, along with several other top prospects.

Holland, 53, was elevated to his present position in 1997. Prior to that time, he handled several different front-office duties for the club over a 15-year period. Holland began his off-ice career in 1985 following a professional career as a goaltender, primarily in the American Hockey League. His first position was as a western Canada scout followed by five years as amateur scouting director and three years as assistant general manager.

A native of Vernon, BC, Holland played in the junior ranks for Medicine Hat (WHL) in 1974-75. He was Toronto's 13th pick (188th overall) in the 1975 draft, but never saw action with the Maple Leafs. Holland twice signed with NHL teams as a free agent - in 1980 with Hartford and 1983 with Detroit. He spent most of his pro career with AHL clubs in Binghamton, Springfield and Adirondack. He made his NHL debut with one game in 1980-81 with Hartford followed by three games in a Detroit Red Wings uniform in 1983-84. In February of 1998, Holland was inducted to the Binghamton Hall of Fame (N.Y.).

In addition to his responsibilities with the Red Wings, Holland is also currently serving as an associate director for Hockey Canada in preparation for the 2010 Winter Olympics in Vancouver.

Ken and his wife, Cindi, reside in suburban Detroit and have four children: Brad, Julie, Rachel and Greg.

STEVE YZERMAN

VICE-PRESIDENT

Steve Yzerman enters his fourth season in his role as Vice-President of the Detroit Red Wings and 26th overall with the franchise. In his current position, Yzerman works closely with Jim Devellano, Ken Holland and Jim Nill evaluating talent at both the professional and amateur levels. He provides extensive input regarding potential trades, free agent signings and at the annual NHL Entry Draft. Yzerman has captured four Stanley Cup championships in his career, three as a player (1997, 1998 and 2002) and one as a member of Detroit's management team (2008).

A standout player, Yzerman announced his retirement on July 3, 2006, after a remarkable 22-year career in the National Hockey League and with the Red Wings. He played 1,514 games (11th all-time), scored 692 goals (eighth all-time) and tallied 1,063 assists (seventh all-time). His 1,755 career points rank sixth all-time in NHL history.

Mike and Marian Ilitch purchased the team in June 1982 and soon after appointed Jim Devellano general manager. Devellano used his first pick as Red Wings' general manager to select Yzerman fourth overall in the 1983 NHL Entry Draft. He is the Red Wings' all-time leader in assists (1,063) and ranks second all-time in goals (692) and points (1,755). Only Gordie Howe (1,687) and Alex Delvecchio (1,549) played more games in a Red Wings sweater than Yzerman.

As impressive as Yzerman's statistics are, it is his title as the longest serving captain in NHL history that may encapsulate his illustrious career. His 20-year reign as captain of the Red Wings began in 1986-87 when head coach Jacques Demers appointed the young emerging star as the next leader of hockey in Detroit. Yzerman supplanted Danny Gare in the role and became the youngest captain in franchise history at just 21-years-old.

Throughout his career, Yzerman excelled in the Stanley Cup Playoffs. He made 20 post-season appearances and won the Stanley Cup three times as a player (1997, 1998 and 2002). In 1997, he led the Red Wings to their first Stanley Cup championship in 42 years. The very next season, following a tragic accident that left Vladimir Konstantinov and Sergei Mnatsakanov critically injured, Yzerman led the Red Wings on an emotional playoff run that ended in their second consecutive Stanley Cup championship. During the 1998 postseason, Yzerman led NHL in scoring with 24 points (6 goals, 18 assists) in 22 games and won the Conn Smythe Trophy as playoff MVP. In 2002, despite a serious knee injury, Yzerman once again proved to be the driving force behind the Red Wings capturing their third Stanley Cup championship in six seasons. He ranks ninth all-time in NHL playoff scoring (185 points), 16th in goals (70) and is tied with Larry Murphy for 11th in assists (115). He is Detroit's all-time leader in postseason goals, assists and points, and ranks second all-time in postseason games played (196). Yzerman's four hat tricks in the Stanley Cup Playoffs are the fifth most all-time.

In 23 seasons with Detroit, Yzerman led the club in scoring 11 times and scored over 100 points six times. He set franchise records for goals (65), assists (90) and points (155) during the 1988-89 campaign. His five seasons of 50-or-more goals are the most in Red Wings history and he owns the three highest goal-scoring seasons in franchise history (65, 1988-89; 62, 1989-90; 58, 1992-93).

On January 2, 2007, Yzerman's #19 was officially retired by the Red Wings organization in an electric pre-game ceremony at Joe Louis Arena. Yzerman was joined by family and friends, former Red Wings greats, the entire Red Wings organization, 20,066 boisterous Red Wings fans in attendance and many, many more watching the festivities on television in an emotional night that no one will soon forget. His sweater now hangs from the rafters at Joe Louis Arena along side the all-time legends of Detroit Red Wings hockey including Terry Sawchuk (1), Ted Lindsay (7), Gordie Howe (9), Alex Delvecchio (10) and Sid Abel (12).

Along with 10 NHL All-Star Game selections, Yzerman also won the Bill Masterson Trophy for perseverance, sportsmanship and dedication to the game of hockey (2002), an Olympic Gold Medal with Canada (2002), the Frank J. Selke Trophy as the NHL's best defensive forward (2000), the Lester B. Pearson Trophy as NHLPA's top player (1989), and was selected to the NHL's all-rookie team (1984).

Since retiring as a player, Yzerman has also been an integral part of the management team of Hockey Canada. He served as general manager for Team Canada at the 2007 and 2008 IIHF World Championships. Under his watch, Canada captured gold in 2007, defeating Finland in the IIHF championship game. Canada would again advance to the IIHF championship game in 2008, but settled for silver following an overtime loss to Russia. Yzerman is currently serving as the Men's Olympic Hockey Team executive director for Team Canada at the 2010 Olympic Winter Games in Vancouver.

Steve and his wife, Lisa, reside in suburban Detroit with their three daughters.

JIM NILL

VICE PRESIDENT/ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Jim Nill begins his 12th season as assistant general manager and his 16th overall as a member of the Red Wings' management team. Nill's current duties include directing Detroit's amateur scouting and selections at the annual NHL Entry Draft. He also served as the general manager of the Adirondack Red Wings. His efforts as Detroit's director of player development and assistant general manager have helped contribute to four Stanley Cup championships (1997, 1998, 2002 and 2008).

Nill continues to oversee the development of the Red Wings' prospects currently assigned to Detroit's main affiliate, the Grand Rapids Griffins of the American Hockey League, as well as those in the Canadian junior and European leagues. Five seasons ago (2001-02), Nill supervised Red Wings prospects assigned to Cincinnati (AHL).

Nill, 51, joined the Red Wings front office in the summer of 1994 following three seasons with the Ottawa Senators. He began his stint with Ottawa as an amateur scout and was promoted to the team's pro scout after only two years.

Prior to Ottawa, Nill enjoyed a nine-year NHL career as a right winger with Boston, Vancouver, St. Louis, Winnipeg and Detroit. He spent his final two and a half years in uniform with the Red Wings after being acquired from Winnipeg on Jan. 10, 1988. His NHL career numbers totaled 58 goals, 87 assists and 854 PIM in 524 regular-season games. Nill later went to Adirondack as a player/coach, retiring as a player after the 1990-91 season.

A native of Hanna, AB, Nill played for Medicine Hat (WHL) in the junior ranks, one year at the University of Calgary and was a member of the Canadian National and Olympic teams in 1979-80. He was St. Louis' fourth pick (89th overall, fifth round) in the 1978 Entry Draft.

Nill was named general manager of Team Canada for the 2004 Men's World Championships where the team captured gold by defeating Sweden 5-3 in the championship game.

Jim and his wife, Bekki, have three children, Jenna, Kristin and Trevor, and reside in suburban Detroit.

RYAN MARTIN

DIRECTOR OF HOCKEY ADMINISTRATION

Ryan Martin enters his fifth season as the Director of Hockey Administration for the Detroit Red Wings. In his role with the team, Martin works closely with the Red Wings management team on a day-to-day basis. His primary responsibilities include Collective Bargaining Agreement administration and compliance, salary cap management, player contract research and analysis, and salary arbitration preparation. He is also involved extensively in player contract negotiations, strategic planning and player evaluations at both the professional and amateur levels.

Prior to joining the Red Wings, Martin practiced law from 1998-1999 in Denver, Colorado with the firm of Messner & Reeves, LLC, specializing in corporate, commercial transactional, and taxation law. From 1999-2003 he worked in Denver as an attorney and NHLPA certified player agent with Kurt Overhardt, PC and KO Sports, Inc., representing professional hockey players in all facets of their careers. Most recently, from 2003-2005, Martin served as the in-house corporate counsel for a group of closely held businesses in Massachusetts and also worked as a part-time scout for the Omaha Lancers (USHL).

A native of Connecticut, Martin graduated from Trinity College in 1992 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Economics and Legal Studies. He went on to earn a law degree from the University of Denver College of Law in 1997 and an LL.M. in taxation from the University of Denver College of Law in 1998.

Ryan and his wife, Candace, reside in suburban Detroit with their daughter Ava and son Cam.

JIRI FISCHER

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Jiri Fischer is entering his third season as the Director of Player Development for the Detroit Red Wings. In his current role, Fischer acts as a liaison between the team and drafted prospects within the organization. He oversees, evaluates and helps further the development of Red Wings prospects currently playing in junior hockey, college hockey and in Europe. Fischer travels extensively throughout the course of the season spending time with each of the team's prospects and providing them with guidance, education, mentoring and support. He continues this process each season to the point where the team's amateur prospects have developed into professionals, either in the National Hockey League with the Red Wings or the American Hockey League with Detroit's affiliate, the Grand Rapids Griffins.

Fischer was a first round pick (25th overall) of the Red Wings in the 1998 NHL Entry Draft. An imposing figure on defense at 6'5" and 235 pounds, he patrolled the blueline for Detroit from 1999-00 through 2005-06. In 305 career games, the Horovice, Czech Republic native scored 11 goals and added 49 assists for 60 points. He also collected 295 career penalty minutes. He won the Stanley Cup as a player with Detroit in 2002 and was selected as the Red Wings' Rookie of the Year by the Detroit Sports Broadcasters Association following the 1999-2000 season.

Jiri and his wife, Avery, have one son together and reside in suburban Detroit during the season.

MIKE BABCOCK

Head Coach

Mike Babcock is entering his fifth season as the head coach of the Detroit Red Wings. Over his first four campaigns in the Motor City, he has compiled an impressive 213-77-38 record (.765 points percentage) including a league best 101-46-17 on the road. Babcock is the first coach in NHL history to guide his team to four consecutive 50-win seasons in his first four seasons with a team. Under his watch, the Red Wings have twice captured the Presidents' Trophy as the NHL's regular season champion. In 2005-06, Detroit finished with a league best 58 wins, including an NHL record 31 road victories, and 124 points. The Red Wings again topped the NHL standings in 2007-08 with 54 wins, 115 points and added the Jennings Trophy allowing the fewest goals against. Those win totals (58, 54) represent the second and third highest respectively in franchise history. Babcock was named head coach of the Western Conference for the 2008 NHL All-Star Game after leading the Red Wings to a Conference best 30-8-3 first-half record. The 30-wins marked the best first half win total ever in Red Wings' history. Babcock was a finalist for the 2008 Jack Adams Award as the NHL's Coach of the Year and was the winner of the Sporting News' 2008 NHL Coach of the Year as voted on by his peers. Last season, he guided the Red Wings to their eighth consecutive Central Division title with a 51-21-10 record and helped the team establish a new NHL record with their ninth consecutive 100-point season. He was named as an assistant coach at the 2009 NHL All-Star Game in Montreal. His overall record through six NHL seasons is 282-139-71 (.717 points percentage), giving him the most regular season wins among NHL head coaches since 2002-03, his first season in the National Hockey League.

Babcock's NHL postseason success is just as impressive. He guided the Red Wings to the 2008 Stanley Cup championship in only his third season with the team, securing his first title in the National Hockey League and the 11th in Red Wings team history. Since he entered the league in 2002-03, Babcock has coached in 90 NHL postseason games, 34 more than any other coach during that span. He has won 58 postseason games, the most in NHL history for head coaches through their first six seasons in the league. His .644 postseason winning percentage is tops among NHL coaches since 2003. Babcock has led his teams to the Stanley Cup Final three times and the conference finals four times through his first six seasons as an NHL head coach.

Prior to joining the Red Wings, Babcock spent two seasons with the Mighty Ducks of Anaheim (2002-04), where in his first season as an NHL head coach he led the Ducks to their first ever appearance in the Stanley Cup Final. With four straight wins over Detroit in the first round of the 2003 playoffs, the Ducks became the first team to sweep a defending Stanley Cup champion since 1952 when the Red Wings swept the Toronto Maple Leafs.

In 2002-03, Babcock led Anaheim to their then best regular season in club history, totaling 40 wins and 95 points (40-27-9-6). Anaheim was the most improved team in the NHL that season, finishing 26 points ahead of their total from 2001-02. The Ducks also set club records for lowest goals-against average (2.32) and fewest goals allowed (193).

Prior to stepping behind the bench in Anaheim, Babcock spent two seasons as head coach of the Cincinnati Mighty Ducks (2000-02), at the time the primary American Hockey League affiliate for Detroit and Anaheim. He led the club to a combined 74-59-20-7 record, including a franchise-best 41 wins and 95 points (41-26-9-4) in 2000-01. Cincinnati qualified for the Calder Cup Playoffs both seasons under his direction.

Babcock moved to Cincinnati following a successful six-year run as the head coach of the Spokane Chiefs of the Western Hockey League (1994-95 through 1999-2000). He had a regular season record of 228-173-29 in Spokane. He was twice named WHL Coach of the Year, in 1996 and 2000, and was named head coach of the 2000 WHL West Division All-Star Team.

In 1993-94, his only season with the Lethbridge Pronghorns of Canadian Interuniversity Sport, Babcock guided his team to a national championship winning the CIS University Cup and was named CIS Coach of the Year.

Babcock has also represented his native Canada at several international competitions. In 2004, he led Team Canada to the gold medal at the World Championships in Prague. Under Babcock's direction, the Canadians posted a 7-1-1 overall record and defeated Sweden 5-3 in the tournament final. In 1997, he earned the honor of coaching Team Canada at the World Junior Championships in Switzerland. Under his guidance Team Canada secured gold with a 2-0 win over the United States in the championship game. He became the first Canadian coach to serve as bench boss for both the Canadian World Junior team and Canadian World Championship team. Because of his success at both the NHL and International levels, Babcock was again tabbed by Hockey Canada to serve as Head Coach of the Canadian men's ice hockey team at the upcoming 2010 Winter Olympic Games in Vancouver.

Away from the rink Babcock is involved in several charitable causes. Most notably, he serves as a spokesman for the Jeffrey Thomas Hayden Foundation which was created to increase awareness about pediatric brain tumors and provide education and support to affected families. The JTHF was started by Tim and Cindy Hayden after losing their 12-year old son Jeffrey to a pediatric brain tumor in September 2004. A passionate supporter of the fight against pediatric cancer, he hosts a child battling the disease at each Red Wings home game.

Mike and his wife, Maureen, reside in Northville with their three children: Allie, Michael and Taylor.

PAUL MACLEAN
Assistant Coach

Paul MacLean returns for his fifth season as an assistant coach with the Red Wings. He is currently in his seventh season serving under head coach Mike Babcock. Previous to his time in Detroit, MacLean served as an assistant on Babcock's staff with the Mighty Ducks of Anaheim from 2002-04. In their first season together, Babcock and MacLean led the Ducks to their first ever Stanley Cup Final appearance. The pair would return to the Final again five years later with Detroit in 2008. The Red Wings defeated the Pittsburgh Penguins in six games, securing the first Stanley Cup championship of MacLean's career. Detroit would win the Western Conference title again in 2009, marking the third time in his six seasons as an NHL assistant coach that MacLean helped guide his team to the Stanley Cup Final.

Prior to the joining the Anaheim coaching staff in 2002, the Antigonish, Nova Scotia native was head coach of the Quad City Mallards of the United Hockey League (UHL) from 2000-02. He led the Mallards to a two-season record of 112-27-9 (.787 winning percentage) and the 2001 Colonial Cup championship.

MacLean was the head coach of the International Hockey League's (IHL) Kansas City Blades from 1997-2000. He spent one season as an assistant coach with the Phoenix Coyotes in 1996-97 and was head coach at Peoria (IHL) from 1993-96. While with Peoria, MacLean was named the Hockey News Minor League Coach of the Year in 1994 after leading the Rivermen to a 51-24-6 mark and a division title. He was also a scout with the St. Louis Blues for two seasons from 1991-93.

A power play specialist, MacLean spent 11 seasons in the NHL as a player with Winnipeg, Detroit and St. Louis from 1980-91. He played in 719 NHL regular season games, scoring 324 goals and adding 349 assists for 673 points. He also appeared in 53 playoff games. Spending most of his playing career with Winnipeg (1981-87), MacLean had a career-high 101 points (41-61—101) in 1984-85 and was named to the Campbell Conference All-Star Team.

Paul and his wife Sharon have two sons, A.J. & David, and a daughter, Erin.

BRAD MCCRIMMON
Assistant Coach

Assistant Coach Brad McCrimmon enters his second season as a member of the Red Wings' coaching staff. He has more than 27 years of NHL experience as a player and coach, including three seasons on the blueline with Detroit from 1990-1993.

Prior to joining the Red Wings in 2008, McCrimmon spent four seasons as an assistant coach with the Atlanta Thrashers. He has also served as an assistant coach for the Calgary Flames (2000-2003), NY Islanders (1997-98), and with Germany's Frankfurt Lions in 2004-05.

McCrimmon spent two seasons as head coach of the Western Hockey League's Saskatoon Blades from 1998-2000, posting a 50-79-15 record. His two seasons in Saskatoon were highlighted by a 40-point improvement from 1998-99 (16-49-7; 39 points) to 1999-2000 (34-30-8; 79 points). McCrimmon also served as an assistant coach for Canada at the 2003 World U-18 Championships, helping the team capture a gold medal.

McCrimmon played 18 seasons as a defenseman in the National Hockey League for Boston, Philadelphia, Calgary, Detroit, Hartford and Phoenix. He played in 1,222 career games registering 403 points (81 goals, 322 assists). He also amassed over 1,400 penalty minutes and finished his career with a plus-444 rating, ranking him eighth on the all-time list. The native of Plenty, Saskatchewan helped Calgary win the Stanley Cup in 1989. He also played in the 1988 NHL All-Star Game and was an NHL Second Team All-Star.

McCrimmon played three seasons with Brandon of the WHL and helped the Wheat Kings capture the 1979 WHL championship. He was a First Team All-Star in 1978 and 1979, and was named to the WHL's All-Century Team in 1999.

McCrimmon played for Canada at the 1978 and 1979 World Championships, helping them take home the bronze medal in 1978.

He and his wife, Maureen, have a daughter, Carlin, and son, Liam.

JIM BEDARD
Goaltending Coach

Goaltending coach Jim Bedard enters his 13th season with the Red Wings. In his position, Bedard works with all goaltenders in the Red Wings' system, splitting time between Detroit and Grand Rapids as well as traveling throughout the minor leagues. He has contributed to three Stanley Cup championships during his time with the Red Wings.

Bedard played his junior hockey for the Sudbury Wolves of the Ontario Hockey League and was drafted by the Washington Capitals in the 1976 Entry Draft with their 6th choice (91st overall). He played for the Capitals' organization for five years, two of which were spent at the NHL level. His NHL statistics total 73 games played with a 17-40-13 record, one shutout and a 3.94 GAA. While not with the NHL club, Bedard spent the majority of his playing time with the Hershey Bears (AHL), but also played for the Cincinnati Stingers (CHL), Rochester Americans (AHL), Tulsa Oilers (CHL) and Dayton Gems (IHL).

Following his days with the Washington organization, Bedard traveled to Europe to play for TPS in Turku, Finland for 14 seasons.

At the conclusion of his playing days, Bedard began his coaching career working with goalies in the Ontario Hockey League. He got his start with the Niagara Falls Thunder, before moving on as an assistant coach with the Erie Otters. In addition, he served as a goaltending consultant for elite teams in Europe.

Bedard, 52, spends the off-season in his hometown of Niagara Falls, Ontario, with his wife Arja and daughter Seija.

KEITH McKITTRICK
Video Coach

Keith McKittrick enters his second season with the Red Wings as the team's video coach. On headset with Detroit's assistant coaches during games, Keith controls the team's video capture and editing system from the coaches' office. His responsibilities include presenting video breakdowns of game situations to staff and players during intermissions, as well as organizing video scouting reports for game preparation, and video reports for post game individual player performance reviews.

Prior to joining Detroit, Keith spent three seasons as Director of Hockey Operations for Rick Comley and the Michigan State hockey program (2005-2008). His duties in East Lansing included oversight of the team's video capture and editing system, providing video breakdowns and written scouting reports of opponents, along with coordination of team travel.

McKittrick also spent time with the Minnesota Wild from 2002-2005 as an assistant to the video coach, working on a variety of video projects and coordinating the Wild Hockey School.

McKittrick added international hockey experience to his resume when he was selected as the video coach for Team USA at the 2006 Three Nations Tournament, and at the 2007 World Junior Championships in Sweden where he helped the Americans capture a bronze medal.

A native of Boston, Massachusetts, McKittrick earned a degree in Sports Management from the University of Minnesota. Keith resides in Bloomfield Hills.

MARK HOWE

PRO SCOUTING

Mark Howe enters his 15th year as part of the Red Wings' front office team and his 18th season overall with the organization. After ending his professional hockey career as an NHL defenseman on September 28, 1995, Howe joined the Red Wings front office as an assistant to the hockey department. In that capacity, he began scouting the IHL and AHL levels. His energies, however, were primarily focused on preparing promising young defensemen for the NHL at the club's American Hockey League affiliate.

Howe repeated family history as his name was engraved on the Stanley Cup as the club's pro scout for back-to-back championship seasons in 1997 and 1998. Mark's father, Gordie, played for Detroit's last back-to-back Cup-winning teams in 1954 and 1955. Gordie Howe was a member of four Stanley Cup championship teams in Detroit, and Mark recently matched his father as his name now appears four times on the Stanley Cup with the Red Wings' 2002 and 2008 Stanley Cup championship teams.

Ironically, another Howe of no relation to Mark and Gordie, Syd Howe, was with the club for its first three championships, meaning that the Detroit Red Wings have never won a Stanley Cup without having a Howe as part of the organization.

On July 8, 1992, Mark returned to his hometown when he signed with Detroit as a free agent. He appeared in 122 regular season games for the Red Wings, collecting 8 goals and 56 assists.

Playing first in the WHA and then the NHL, Howe is the second-highest scoring defenseman in professional hockey after former Red Wing Paul Coffey with 1,246 points (197-545—742 in 929 NHL games; 208-296—504 in 426 WHA games).

Howe was a First Team NHL All-Star defenseman in 1983, '86 and '87. In 1985-86, he led the league with a +85 rating, and followed with a +57 rating to pace all NHL defensemen in 1986-87. He was runner-up for the Norris Trophy in both 1986 and 1987, and was selected to five NHL All-Star Games (1981, '83, '85, '86 and '88).

Mark resides in Philadelphia and has three children: Travis, Nolan and Azia.

PAT VERBEEK

PRO SCOUT

Pat Verbeek enters his fourth season as a pro scout with the Red Wings after playing two seasons with the team (1999-2001) and serving as a part-time color analyst for Red Wings' television broadcasts on FSN Detroit.

Verbeek, 45, is responsible for providing insight to evaluate talent and consider player personnel decisions. He is called upon to scout select teams at the NHL and AHL levels. Pat provides key information to the Red Wings' coaching and management staffs regarding potential trades, free agent acquisitions, and in preparation for upcoming opponents.

The Sarnia, Ontario native played for five different clubs during his 21-year NHL career (New Jersey, Hartford, NY Rangers, Dallas and Detroit). He was selected 43rd overall in the 1982 NHL Entry Draft by New Jersey and made his NHL debut with the Devils during the 1982-83 season. Verbeek complied 1,063 points (522 goals, 541 assists) in 1,424 career games.

Pat and his wife, Dianne, have four children.

GLENN MERKOSKY
Pro Scout

Glenn Merkosky, 49, begins his 11th season as a member of Detroit's scouting staff and 18th season overall with the organization. His primary responsibilities include scouting the American Hockey League and identifying minor league talent for the Red Wings. He also scouts the National Hockey League, evaluating players for Detroit.

During his time with the Red Wings, Merkosky served as both a head coach and an assistant coach for the team's former minor league affiliate, the Adirondack Red Wings. He played 66 career games in the NHL, including 20 with Detroit.

Glenn resides in Glens Falls, New York with his wife, Jennifer. They have four children.

BRUCE HARALSON
Pro Scout

Bruce Haralson enters his first season as a pro scout for the Detroit Red Wings after spending the previous 13 seasons as an amateur scout with the organization. His primary responsibility in his new role with the team will be scouting NHL clubs based in the western United States and Canada, along with their minor league affiliates in the American Hockey League. Bruce is responsible for evaluating talent at the NHL and AHL levels in order to provide input to Red Wings management regarding potential trades and free agent acquisitions. In his previous role, Bruce scouted amateur players in the western junior and college ranks in advance of the annual NHL Entry Draft.

Bruce and his wife, Lise, live in Lynden, Washington and spend their summers in Kelowna, British Columbia. They have two sons, Jay and Chad.

TRAINING, EQUIPMENT & MEDICAL STAFF

TRAINERS

Piet Van Zant is entering his eighth season as head athletic trainer and 16th with the organization. He joined the Red Wings' staff for the 1999-2000 season after spending six years with Detroit's AHL franchise in Glens Falls, NY. Van Zant received a bachelor's degree in athletic training from Central Michigan University in 1993. Piet and his wife Missy reside in suburban Detroit with their children Jared, Dylan, Mikayla and McKenna.

Russ Baumann enters his eighth season with the Red Wings as the club's assistant athletic therapist. The Livonia native graduated from Central Michigan University with a bachelor's degree in athletic training in 1993 and his Master's in physical therapy from Wayne State University in 1999. Russ resides with his wife Jennifer, son Blake and daughter Hailey in suburban Detroit.

EQUIPMENT STAFF

Paul Boyer enters his 16th season as equipment manager after joining the Wings for the 1994-95 season following one season with the New Jersey Devils. A native of Sault Ste. Marie, Ontario, Paul earned a bachelor of science degree from Lake Superior State University, then spent five years as the school's hockey trainer before heading to the National Hockey League. Boyer was selected to work the 2002 NHL All-Star game in Los Angeles. He is currently in his fourth year as president of the Society of Professional Hockey Equipment Managers (SPHEM). Prior to being named president of SPEHM, Boyer was secretary for four terms. Paul and his wife Helen have three children and reside in suburban Detroit.

John Remejes enters his second season as assistant equipment manager of the Red Wings. The Mt. Clemens native was part of the Red Wings game night staff for 14 years, beginning as a stick boy for visiting NHL teams at age 16, prior to his first year as a full-time assistant equipment manager in 2008-09. John attended Central Michigan University and Alma College.

Adam Sheehan begins his second season as assistant equipment manager of the Red Wings. Prior to joining the Red Wings, the Farmington Hills native spent seven seasons with the Phoenix Coyotes and one with the Carolina Hurricanes. He attended Western Michigan University to study Criminal Justice. Adam resides in suburban Detroit.

MEDICAL STAFF

The Red Wings' medical staff consists of the club's medical director, Donald W. Weaver, M.D. (5th year), team physicians Douglas G. Plagens, M.D. (5th year) and Anthony Colucci, D.O. (16th year), and team dentists Dr. Jeffrey Boogren (1st year) and Dr. Randy Freij (1st year).

RED WINGS ON THE AIR

FOX SPORTS DETROIT

All 82 Detroit Red Wings regular-season games will be carried live on both radio and television. Fox Sports Detroit continues as the main television partner of the Red Wings by airing up to 72 regular-season contests and all playoff contests not designated as exclusive national broadcasts.

Ken Daniels and Mickey Redmond return as the Wings TV announce crew with former Red Wing Larry Murphy rotating in for Redmond during select road games.

In addition to the local and regional coverage by Fox Sports Detroit, at least 10 Red Wings games will be carried nationally in the United States by NBC and VERSUS.

NBC will carry the carry the game on Sunday, April 4th when Detroit travels to Philadelphia to take on the Flyers, as well as up to four other possible match-ups featuring the Red Wings, while nine games will be distributed nationally on the NHL's cable rightsholder VERSUS.

Ken Daniels begins his 13th season as the Red Wings' television play-by-play announcer, joining the team from Hockey Night In Canada, where he did play by play and was also a host, including segments with Don Cherry on Coach's Corner.

While working for CBC, Daniels' diverse sports experience included hosting stints for CBC Sports Weekend and the Indy-Car World Series, as well as Formula One Grand Prix coverage and Toronto Blue Jays baseball. Daniels' broadcast resume also includes two Olympic Games (1996 Atlanta and 1988 Seoul) where he covered a wide range of sports including cycling, baseball, canoeing, kayaking, tennis and judo.

In addition to his numerous television assignments for CBC, Daniels was also the voice of morning sports for Toronto's all sports radio station, The Fan 590, for eight years.

Ken won a Michigan Emmy in 2006 when he called a Red Wings-Ottawa Senators game from between the benches at Joe Louis Arena.

Mickey Redmond enters his 24th year as color analyst on Red Wings television. Redmond is a highly regarded analyst whose broadcast resume includes work on nationally televised games for Fox Sports, ESPN (including ESPN International broadcasts of the 1997 and 1998 Stanley Cup Finals) and CBC's Hockey Night In Canada. During the 2001 Stanley Cup Playoffs, Redmond worked with ABC as the sideline reporter for the Detroit broadcasts.

Mickey twice was a 50-goal scorer in five full seasons with Detroit after being acquired from Montréal with Guy Charron and Bill Collins for Frank Mahovlich in January of 1971. He scored 52 goals and made the NHL's First All-Star Team in 1973, and netted 51 the next season to earn a Second-Team berth. He had 233 goals and 195 assists in 538 regular-season games in nine NHL seasons with Montréal and Detroit.

John Tuohey enters his 13th year as Executive Producer for FSN Detroit telecasts. A native of Detroit and graduate of the University of Michigan, Tuohey returned to his hometown in 1997 to launch Fox Sports Detroit, leaving his own production company in Chicago. He spent ten years as executive producer of SportsChannel Chicago where he earned local Emmys for his work on Blackhawks, Bulls and White Sox telecasts.

97.1 FM THE TICKET

97.1 FM The Ticket (along with WXYT AM 1270) begins year number nine as the flagship radio station of the Red Wings with the announce team of Ken Kal and Paul Woods. 97.1 FM The Ticket will broadcast all of Detroit's regular-season and playoff games.

The radio team of play-by-play announcer Ken Kal and analyst Paul Woods return for their 15th season together behind the microphone of the Wings' flagship station 97.1 FM The Ticket.

Ken Kal begins his 15th season as the radio play-by-play man for the Red Wings. Prior to joining Detroit, Kal handled the play-by-play duties for University of Michigan hockey for 11 years on Ann Arbor AM stations - seven on WTKA after the first four on WAAM, during which time he also covered the Red Wings as a reporter. Born and raised in the city of Detroit, Kal began his radio career immediately following graduation from Wayne State University in 1979 with his first job at WAAM, handling sports and working as an on-air personality.

In addition to his broadcast duties, Kal represents the Red Wings in the community, often visiting schools or business groups, hosting team events and playing for the Wings' charity softball team. Rounding out his administrative duties, Ken also works with the broadcast department to expand the Red Wings radio network and maintain affiliate relations. Kal received the Detroit Sports Broadcasters Association's Ty Tyson Award for broadcast excellence in 2007. He is also a board member of the Polish-American Sports Hall of Fame. Ken and his wife, Darlene, reside in St. Clair Shores, MI and enjoy boating and spending time with their two dogs.

Paul Woods is back for his 23rd year as color analyst for the Red Wings, a career which began shortly after the conclusion of his playing days in the NHL. A native of Hespeler, ON, Woods was drafted by Montréal in 1975. He never played for the Canadiens, but was obtained by Detroit in the 1977 waiver draft. His seven-year stint with the Red Wings began in 1977-78 and ended after the 1983-84 season. He finished his career with 72 goals and 124 assists in 501 regular-season games.

PUBLIC ADDRESS ANNOUNCER

A mainstay on the Detroit Red Wings staff, public address announcer Budd Lynch, 92 years young, begins his 60th season with the organization. He began his Red Wings' career in 1949 as the team's radio play-by-play announcer. He attempted a retirement in 1975, but was brought back to the team by Alex Delvecchio as the director of publicity. A second retirement attempt in 1985 failed when Marian Ilitch asked Lynch to stay on at his current position of public address announcer. Lynch was given the Ty Tyson Award for excellence in sports broadcasting by the DSBA in 2005.

PERSONAL

Ville lives in Helsinki, Finland, during the summer. He worked out with fellow Finn and Red Wings forward Valtteri Filppula during the off-season, focusing on his skating under the tutelage of former Finnish speed skater and Olympian Janne Hänninen. When he's not playing hockey, Ville likes to take in the arts ranging from music to black-and-white photography. He started learning how to play the guitar during the 2008-09 season. His favorite moment of the '08-09 regular season was scoring on his first NHL shot in a slick spin-o-rama move against Washington.

DETROIT RED WINGS' TEAM HISTORY

The Detroit Red Wings enter their 84th season in the National Hockey League as one of the premier franchises in professional hockey.

As the NHL's most storied American team, the Red Wings have featured some of the greatest players, coaches and executives the game has ever known. Throughout the 1900s, names like Adams, Howe, Abel, Lindsay, Sawchuk, Delvecchio and Hall became very familiar to hockey fans. The list continues today with names like Bowman, Shanahan, Fedorov, Yzerman, Lidstrom, Datsyuk and Zetterberg.

The first 83 seasons saw Detroit win 11 Stanley Cups, which is third behind only the Montreal Canadiens (23) and the Toronto Maple Leafs (13). The Red Wings most recently won Stanley Cup championships in 1997, 1998, 2002 and 2008, posted the NHL's best record in the decade of the '90s and became the benchmark to which all teams throughout the NHL measure their own success.

The roots of the Red Wings go all the way back to the old Western Hockey League, where the Victoria (British Columbia) Cougars were members until their roster was sold to a group from Detroit on September 25, 1926. The Detroit group had been awarded an NHL franchise on May 15, 1926.

The team began to play as the Detroit Cougars in the fall of 1926 while playing its home games in Windsor, Ontario. Despite the fact that the Victoria Cougars had won the Stanley Cup in 1925 and were Cup finalists in 1926, the Detroit Cougars finished with the NHL's worst record at 12-28-4 in 1926-27. Not only did the team struggle on the ice, but it performed poorly on the ledger sheet as well where the Cougars were more than $80,000 in debt.

Help came the following season in the form of Jack Adams as the team's coach and general manager. Adams had played in the old Pacific Coast League and in the NHL with the Toronto St. Pats and Ottawa Senators. Adams' tenure as coach and GM would last until the 1962-63 season when Sid Abel took over.

The team also moved into the brand new Olympia Stadium for the 1927-28 season. A Detroit and professional hockey landmark, the Olympia would serve as the home for the franchise through the midway point of the 1979-80 season.

With Adams at the helm, the team made the playoffs for the first time in franchise history (1928-29). They were still among the NHL's have-nots, however, and perpetually close to bankruptcy.

The 1930s

Willing to try anything, Adams changed the name to the Detroit Falcons for the 1930-31 season.

After the depression, the team went into receivership and Adams was forced to use his own money to make payroll. It was so bad financially, that Adams joked if Montreal Canadiens superstar Howie Morenz were available for $1.98 the Falcons still couldn't afford him. Things weren't much better on the ice as the team had only made the playoffs twice in its first six seasons.

In 1932, the financial problems ended when grain millionaire and shipping magnate James Norris Sr. purchased the team. Norris, like Adams, was a Canadian turned American. He had once played hockey for the Montreal Amateur Athletic Association's Winged Wheelers.

When the two men met, Norris and Adams agreed that the team's new logo would be a winged wheel and the club's nickname changed to the Red Wings.

The franchise already had a few players who would contribute to the team's first two Stanley Cups in 1936 and 1937 such as Ebbie Goodfellow, Larry Aurie, Herbie Lewis, Hec Kilrea and John Sorrell. Norris' money and Adams' ability to wheel and deal added such players as Carl Voss, Syd Howe, Marty Barry, goaltender Normie Smith, Bucko McDonald and others.

The Red Wings had an outstanding season in 1932-33 when Voss won the franchise's first award by winning the Calder Trophy as the NHL's top rookie. Detroit continued its success in the following years, advancing to the semifinals against the New York Rangers in 1933 and losing in the Stanley Cup Final to the Chicago Blackhawks in 1934. Detroit slumped to under .500 and missed the playoffs in 1934-35 but came back to win the first Stanley Cup in franchise history in 1936, defeating the Toronto Maple Leafs three games to one in the finals.

The Red Wings went on to repeat as Cup champions in 1937, winning three games to two over the New York Rangers. However, one of the most memorable moments in Red Wings and NHL history came in Game 1 of the first round series against the Montreal Maroons at the Montreal forum on March 24, 1936. In the longest game ever played in NHL history, the Red Wings defeated the Maroons 1-0 on rookie Mud Bruneteau's goal at 16:30 into the sixth overtime period. That contest also began a playoff shutout run of 248 minutes and 32 seconds for Normie Smith.

The 1936 and 1937 teams featured two of the greatest players ever to wear the winged wheel in Ebbie Goodfellow and Syd Howe. Goodfellow played with the Red Wings from the 1929-30 season until 1942-43. He was a forward for the first five seasons and led the team in scoring in 1930-31 and 1931-32. His 1930-31 total of 48 points was good for second overall in the NHL. Since the team had a surplus of forwards, however, Adams asked Goodfellow to move to defense for the 1934-35 season. He made the move and helped the team win the Cup in 1936 and 1937. He was a first team All-Star on defense in 1936-37 and 1939-40, and a second-team selection in 1935-36. Goodfellow was a player-coach in his final season, in which the Red Wings won their third Stanley Cup.

Syd Howe was also a versatile player as he manned every position but goaltender during his 17-year NHL career, which spanned from 1929-30 to 1945-46. He played with the Red Wings for the last 11 seasons of his career. Howe played with the Ottawa Senators, Philadelphia Quakers, Toronto Maple Leafs and the Senators again before the franchise moved to St. Louis (then known as the Eagles). Howe went with them, but the financially strapped team sold Howe and defenseman Ralph (Scotty) Bowman – no relation to the Red Wings' former coach – to Detroit for Teddy Graham and $50,000.

Howe went on to help the Red Wings win their first three Stanley Cups and holds the team record for goals in a game with six on Feb. 3, 1944, against the New York Rangers at Olympia. When Howe retired in 1946, he was the NHL's all-time leading scorer with 528 points. Goodfellow was elected to the Hockey Hall of Fame in 1963 and Howe in 1965.

Sid Abel, a young man from Melville, Saskatchewan, joined the Red Wings for part of the 1938-39 season. Abel played in only 15 games with Detroit that season and 24 the next as he split time between the NHL and the American Hockey League, but he became a regular in 1940-41.

Abel finished fifth in league scoring with 49 points in 1941-42 and became the captain of the Red Wings in 1942-43.

Detroit's blue line also got an addition in 1938-39 when Jack Stewart was introduced to the NHL. His dark features and physical game earned him the nickname 'Black Jack' Stewart as he terrorized opposing forwards with bone-crushing hits and his great strength.

The Red Wings advanced to the Stanley Cup Finals in 1941 and 1942, losing to the Boston Bruins and the Toronto Maple Leafs respectively. The Bruins swept the Red Wings in four games as Detroit was thwarted by the spectacular goaltending of Frank Brimsek, who lived up to his nickname of 'Mr. Zero' by allowing only six goals to Detroit in the series.

The Red Wings won the first three games of the 1942 Stanley Cup Final against the Maple Leafs, but Toronto rallied to win the next four to win the Cup. It was the first and only time a team has come back from a three games to none Cup Final deficit and only one of the two times in NHL history that a team has lost a playoff series after winning the first three games (the NY Islanders also came back from a 3-0 deficit against Pittsburgh in 1975).

The Red Wings would get their revenge on the Bruins and Brimsek by winning the third Stanley Cup in team history with a four-game sweep of Boston in 1943. Detroit had also finished first overall with 61 points and a 25-14-11 record in 1942-43, the first season of the 'Original Six' six-team NHL (the league had ranged from 4 to 10 teams from its beginning in 1917-18 through 1941-42). That season began what has become known as the NHL's 'Golden Age' which lasted through the 1966-67 season, after which the league doubled in size to 12 teams.

The 1944 season saw an offensive explosion in the NHL as many of the league's best defensive players were serving in World War II (both Abel and Stewart served in the Royal Canadian Air Force in 1943-44 and 1944-45). The NHL's leading scorer, Boston's Herb Cain, had 36 goals and 82 points, and the Red Wings' Carl Liscombe finished fourth in the scoring race with a team record 36 goals, 37 assists and 73 points.

Detroit wouldn't capture the Stanley Cup again until 1950, but the late '40s would see the arrival of a group of players who would become not only Red Wing legends, but NHL legends as well.

With the promotions of Ted Lindsay (1944-45), Gordie Howe (1946-47), Red Kelly (1947-48) and Terry Sawchuk (1949-50) to the NHL and the return of both Abel and Stewart from the RCAF, one of the greatest dynasties in NHL history was set into motion.

Adams handed the coaching reins to Tommy Ivan after the 1946-47 season. Detroit finished second overall during the 1947-48 regular season, five points behind the Toronto Maple Leafs, but the team ran off a streak of seven straight first overall finishes from 1948-49 through 1954-55 and won four Stanley Cups (1950, 1952, 1954 and 1955).

Lindsay, Howe and Abel terrorized the NHL as members of the 'Production Line.' Kelly became the NHL's top offensive defenseman and Stewart provided more physical play on the blue line before being traded after Detroit won the 1950 Stanley Cup. The Red Wings can thank Pete Babando for that triumph as he tallied the clinching goal eight minutes and thirty-one seconds into the second overtime period of Game 7 to defeat the New York Rangers four games to three.

Detroit proved to be a talented and deep squad in the 1950 playoffs when Gordie Howe suffered a serious head injury in Game 1 of the first-round playoff series against the Toronto Maple Leafs. Howe almost died and would miss the remainder of the playoffs, but he was out of the hospital in time to join his teammates for the on-ice celebration after Babando's goal in Game 7. The first round of the 1950 playoffs had also featured overtime heroics as Leo Reise scored the OT winners in Games 4 and 7.

Veteran goaltender Harry Lumley backstopped Detroit to the 1950 Stanley Cup victory, but Sawchuk was so impressive in a seven game call-up from the minors while Lumley was injured that Lumley was traded to the Chicago Blackhawks before the 1950-51 season to make room for Sawchuk.

Other future Red Wing greats arrived during this period. Defenseman Marcel Pronovost was with the team during the 1949-50 season but didn't play. He made his Detroit debut the following season along with Alex Delvecchio.

Sawchuk staged one of the greatest performances in Stanley Cup playoff history when Detroit captured the 1952 Stanley Cup. He allowed only five goals in eight games as the Red Wings swept both the Toronto Maple Leafs and Montreal Canadiens in four games. Even more incredibly, Sawchuk didn't give up a single goal in any of the four games played at Olympia Stadium.

That was also the first appearance of an octopus on Detroit ice at a hockey game. The eight tentacles represented the eight games that a team needed to win at that time to capture the Stanley Cup.

Another significant event came during the first round of the 1952 playoffs. Lindsay and Howe had received death threats if they played in Game 4 in Toronto; however, both played and the Wings won to end the series. After the game, Lindsay playfully chided the Toronto fans when he skated to center ice and held his stick like a machine gun and pretended to shoot the crowd.

The 1953-54 season was Ivan's last as a coach and the Red Wings gave him a grand send off with their third Cup in five seasons. The Wings then repeated as Cup champs the following season in Jimmy Skinner's first season behind the Detroit bench. The Red Wings defeated the Montreal Canadiens in the finals both seasons, winning in five games in 1954 thanks to Tony Leswick's OT goal in Game 5 and in seven games in 1955.

After dropping the 1956 finals to the Canadiens in five games, it seemed that the Red Wings' dynasty would go on for the near future but questionable trades by Adams gutted the team of many good and great players.

Stars like Sawchuk, Lindsay, Kelly and young players like Glenn Hall and Johnny Bucyk were traded between 1955 and 1960 with the team receiving little in exchange. Sawchuk did return to Detroit, but one of the players sent to the Bruins to reacquire him was Bucyk, who went on to become one of the best left wingers in NHL history.

Detroit did not return to the Stanley Cup Final until 1961, losing to the Chicago Blackhawks. The Red Wings went on to advance to the Cup Final in three of the four seasons from 1963-66, but lost each time. The team, now coached by Sid Abel, lost to the Toronto Maple Leafs in 1963 (five games) and 1964 (seven games), and to the Montreal Canadiens in 1966 (six games). It would be 29 years before the Wings would return to the Cup Final and 31 years before they would record another victory in a Stanley Cup Final game.

There had been jubilation at the Olympia on Nov. 10, 1963, when Howe broke Maurice 'Rocket' Richard's record for most career NHL goals with his 545th against Richard's former team, the Montreal Canadiens, and goaltender Charlie Hodge.

Detroit reached the playoffs four times from 1966-67 through 1985-86, a period that was highlighted by the veteran line of Howe, Delvecchio and Frank Mahovlich during the 1968-69 and 1969-70 seasons.

Mickey Redmond became the first Red Wing to score 50 goals in a season in 1972-73 (he would do it again in '73-74). Other highlights during the 1970s included Marcel Dionne's 121 points and Danny Grant's 50 goals in 1974-75.

The team moved to Joe Louis Arena in December 1979 and hosted the NHL All-Star Game in January 1980. The contest featured 50-year old Gordie Howe, who was in his last season with the Hartford Whalers after returning to pro hockey in 1973-74 with the World Hockey Association. He had retired from the Red Wings following the 1970-71 season.

The Norris family finally sold the Red Wings in 1982 to Mike and Marian Ilitch, who owned Little Caesars Pizza.

One of their first hires was Jimmy Devellano as the team's general manager. His first move was to select a shy, 18-year old center named Steve Yzerman with the fourth overall pick of the 1983 NHL Draft.

Detroit made the playoffs in both 1983-84 and 1984-85, but lost in the first round each season. The Red Wings collected only 40 points in 1985-86 to finish last overall in the NHL, but the disappointing campaign would prove as one step backwards before Detroit would take several steps forward in the right direction.

Detroit hired Jacques Demers, coach of the St. Louis Blues, as their new head coach. Not only did the Red Wings make the playoffs in each of Demers' first two seasons, but they also advanced to the Campbell Conference Finals each season, losing to the Edmonton Oilers in five games both times.

Demers named the 21-year-old Yzerman team captain in 1986. The squad featured other young players like Gerard Gallant, Petr Klima, Bob Probert, Shawn Burr, Adam Oates, Joe Kocur and Steve Chiasson as well as veterans like Dave Barr, Lee Norwood, Tim Higgins, Gilbert Delorme and Harold Snepsts. Demers won the Jack Adams Award as the NHL's Coach of the Year in both 1986-87 and 1987-88.

In 1988-89, Yzerman set franchise records for goals, assists and points with 65 goals, 90 assists and 155 points, which continues to be the highest season point total in NHL history for a player not named Gretzky or Lemieux. Yzerman and linemates Gallant and Paul MacLean combined for 319 points, the most by any line in Red Wings history. Despite their stellar play, Detroit lost in the first round of the playoffs.

The 1989-90 season saw the Red Wings miss the playoffs, ending Demers' run as the Wings head coach. He was replaced by former Washington Capitals coach Bryan Murray, who was also named the team's general manager. The disappointing 1989-90 season was the last time Detroit would miss the playoffs as the Wings have now gone to postseason play in 18 consecutive seasons.

Young players like Sergei Fedorov, Nicklas Lidstrom, Vladimir Konstantinov, Slava Kozlov, Keith Primeau, Martin Lapointe, Darren McCarty and Chris Osgood reached the NHL with the Red Wings and veterans such as Dino Ciccarelli, Paul Coffey and Ray Sheppard were acquired via trade. All but Primeau, Ciccarelli, Coffey and Sheppard contributed to the Red Wings' Stanley Cup victories in 1997 and 1998.

The Red Wings made the playoffs in 1990-91, but were eliminated in the first round of the playoffs by the St. Louis Blues. Over the next three seasons, the Red Wings were one of the most prolific offensive teams in the NHL and one of the best during the regular season. Detroit finished third in goals in 1991-92 and advanced to the second round before being eliminated by Chicago.

The Wings led the NHL in scoring the following two seasons, but were eliminated in the first round both years (Toronto and San Jose).

Murray was fired as coach after the 1992-93 season and the legendary Scotty Bowman was hired to replace him behind the bench. After the team was eliminated by the Sharks, Murray was fired as G.M. He was replaced by a combonation of Devellano (who had become the team's senior vice-president when Murray was hired in 1990), assistant general manager Ken Holland, and Bowman (who would serve as the player personnel director).

Bowman did what many considered unthinkable as he took the league's most potent offensive team and began to emphasize defense. He and associate coaches Barry Smith and Dave Lewis instituted the 'left-wing lock system' and veteran defensemen Bob Rouse and Mike Ramsey were signed as free agents. The team also traded defenseman Steve Chiasson to the Calgary Flames for veteran goaltender Mike Vernon during the off-season. That gave the team an experienced goaltender to go along with a young Chris Osgood, who had come up during the 1993-94 season and had been forced to play in the playoffs.

Fedorov came of age during the 1993-94 season as he finished second in the league in scoring with 120 points (56 goals and 64 assists) and won both the Hart Trophy as the NHL MVP and the Frank J. Selke Trophy as the league's best defensive forward. Sheppard also scored 50 goals (52-41—93) to give the Red Wings the first 50-goal pair in franchise history.

The Red Wings were ready to go but the 1994-95 regular season didn't begin until January because of a lockout by the owners. When the season did begin, the Red Wings were the best: Coffey won the Norris Trophy as the NHL's top defenseman during the regular season, the Wings clinched the Presidents' Trophy and later advanced to the Stanley Cup Final for the first time since 1966. The Wings, however, were not able to reach their ultimate goal when they were swept by the New Jersey Devils in the Cup Final.

The following regular season was even better as the team won 62 games to break the NHL record for most wins in one season. Not only were the Red Wings a success on the ice, they were a huge story off of it.

Yzerman discovered how Red Wings fans felt about him once and for all. With rumors of a trade swirling, he received a tremendous, deafening ovation when he was introduced at the 1995-96 home opener at Joe Louis Arena. Fans shouted 'Stevie!' 'Stevie!' 'Stevie!' That moment made it clear Yzerman would remain a Red Wing for life.

Early in the season, Detroit sent Sheppard to the San Jose Sharks for veteran Igor Larionov. He teamed up with Fedorov, Kozlov, Konstantinov and veteran defenseman Slava Fetisov, who had been acquired from New Jersey at the trade deadline the previous season, to form the first all-Russian five-man unit in NHL history. The 'Russian Five' dazzled opponents with their skill and skating ability, becoming the Red Wings' personality.

Individually, Coffey became the first defenseman to collect 1,000 assists, Yzerman scored the 500th goal of his career during the 1995-96 season and Bowman broke the record for the most NHL games coached.

The Wings had much to celebrate at the 1996 NHL Awards Show as Bowman won the Jack Adams Award, Osgood and Vernon shared the Jennings Trophy (team with the fewest goals against) and Fedorov repeated as the Selke Trophy winner.

Once again it was playoff disappointment for Detroit as they were eliminated in the Western Conference Final by the Colorado Avalanche, who would go on to win the 1996 Stanley Cup. That series began the fierce rivalry between the Red Wings and the Avalanche. The most significant incident came in Game 6 when Claude Lemieux drilled the Wings' Kris Draper into the boards from behind, resulting in serious facial injuries.

Ciccarelli was traded during the off-season but the Wings weren't done trading, sending Primeau, Coffey and a first round pick in the 1997 draft to the Hartford Whalers for left wing Brendan Shanahan and minor league defenseman Brian Glynn.

Shanahan was one of the final pieces in Detroit's Stanley Cup puzzle and went on to score

46 goals that season. Veteran defenseman Larry Murphy was acquired at the trade deadline and Joe Kocur, who had been traded to the Rangers in 1991, returned to Detroit as a free agent in December 1996.

The most memorable moment of the regular season came on March 26, 1997, when Darren McCarty exacted revenge on Claude Lemieux for the hit on Draper. It came during an on-ice braw which featured Colorado goaltender Patrick Roy and Wings goaltender Mike Vernon in a slugfest at center ice. The frenzy helped rally the Wings from a two-goal deficit to a 6-5 overtime victory as McCarty got the game-winner. When Detroit went on to win the Stanley Cup, each player pointed to that game as the moment they became a team.

In the playoffs, Detroit defeated the Blues in six games, swept the Mighty Ducks of Anaheim in four games (3 of the 4 games went into OT, including Game 4), took the Avalanche in six games in the Western Conference Final and swept the Philadelphia Flyers in the 1997 Stanley Cup Final.

Finally the Red Wings and their fans had won their first Stanley Cup in 42 years. Steve Yzerman's smile as he accepted the Stanley Cup and skated around the Joe Louis Arena ice personified all the emotions the crowd and team were feeling – joy, relief, exuberance and satisfaction. Vernon was voted the Conn Smythe Trophy winner as the playoff MVP.

Tragedy would strike just six days later when Vladimir Konstantinov and team masseur Sergei Mnatsakanov were critically injured in a one-vehicle limousine accident. Fetisov was also in the limousine, but his injuries weren't nearly as serious and he returned to play the following season. For Konstantinov and Mnatsakanov, it was the end of their careers.

Vernon, who wanted a three-year contract, was dealt to the San Jose Sharks. Ken Holland also became the team's general manager that summer.

Despite the loss of the NHL's best defenseman in Konstantinov, the Red Wings played like champions throughout the regular season. The fact the team was never able to truly celebrate its Stanley Cup victory and the constant thoughts of their stricken teammates propelled a driven Red Wings team into the playoffs.

After defeating the Phoenix Coyotes, St. Louis Blues and Dallas Stars in the first three rounds, Detroit swept the Washington Capitals in the Stanley Cup Final with Yzerman winning the Conn Smythe Trophy. After accepting the 1998 Stanley Cup for a consecutive year, the Captain placed it on the lap of Konstantinov. The entire team surrounded Konstantinov, creating an emotional scene that touched fans throughout the sports world. Media from all over the NHL wrote that never had one team deserved to repeat as much as this Red Wings squad.

Their Colorado rival may have eliminated the Red Wings in the second round of the playoffs over the next two seasons, but there was plenty of individual achievement and player movement. In 1998-99, Larry Murphy passed Tim Horton to become the all-time games played leader among defensemen in NHL history.

A surprise came at the trade deadline when longtime Red Wings' nemesis Chris Chelios was acquired from the Chicago Blackhawks. Another surprise acquisition was made when former Dallas Stars forward Pat Verbeek was signed as a free agent. That set up a season of milestones for the Red Wings in 1999-2000. Yzerman scored goal No. 600, Verbeek tallied

No. 500, Shanahan collected No. 400 and Fedorov earned No. 300. Yzerman also recorded his 1,500th point and 900th assist, while Verbeek registered his 1,000th point.

By the end of the season, only Gordie Howe had played more NHL games than Murphy. The postseason honors continued as Yzerman won the Selke Trophy and was among three Red Wings, along with Shanahan and Lidstrom, to be selected as First Team All-Stars.

The Red Wings finished with the league's second best record in 2000-01, but were eliminated by the Los Angeles Kings during the first round of the 2001 playoffs. After finishing second in Norris Trophy voting for three straight years, Lidstrom finally won his first Norris Trophy as the NHL's best defenseman.

Significant moves were made during the summer of 2001. Future Hall of Fame players Dominik Hasek, Brett Hull and Luc Robitaille were added to Detroit's already potent roster. The moves resulted in a league-best 166 points, culminating with the 10th Stanley Cup in franchise history after the Red Wings defeated the Carolina Hurricanes in five games during the 2002 Stanley Cup Final.

Lidstrom, who would go on to win his second straight Norris Trophy a week after winning the Cup, became the first European-born player to win the Conn Smythe as the playoff MVP. With an NHL-record ninth Stanley Cup as a head coach, Bowman stepped down, retiring after nine seasons behind the Red Wings' bench. By 2009, four members of that Cup-winning squad had been inducted into the Hockey Hall of Fame (Larionov, Yzerman, Hull and Robitaille).

Several Red Wings reached major milestones throughout the 2002-03 season including Brett Hull recording his 700th goal, becoming just the sixth player in NHL history to reach this prestigious mark. He finished the season with 716 goals, making him fifth best all-time.

The Red Wings took home some hardware at the 2003 NHL Awards Show when Nicklas Lidstrom won his third consecutive Norris Trophy and Steve Yzerman was awarded the Masterton Trophy for perseverance. He returned to the Detroit lineup late in the regular season following serious off-season knee surgery. Brendan Shanahan was also named the King Clancy Memorial Award winner for his humanitarian efforts and Darren McCarty was given the NHL Foundation Player Award for his contributions in the community.

The Red Wings brought in Mike Babcock in 2005-06 to take over as head coach for the departed Dave Lewis, who had taken the reigns following Bowman's retirement in 2002. In the first year under Babcock's direction, the Red Wings would win 58 games during the regular season, the second most in franchise history, and capture the Presidents' Trophy as the NHL's regular season champions. Detroit also set an NHL record with 31 road wins.

A strong regular season would not translate into postseason success however, as the Red Wings lost in six games to the eighth-seeded Edmonton Oilers in the first round of the playoffs. Nicklas Lidstrom would win his fourth Norris Trophy in '05-06, while center Pavel Datsyuk would take home his first Lady Byng Trophy for sportsmanship and ability.

The 2006-07 season saw the Red Wings once again reach the 50-win plateau and top the Western Conference with a 50-19-13 record. The Red Wings would tie the Buffalo Sabres atop the NHL standings with 113 points; however, the Sabres would win the Presidents' Trophy on a tiebreaker. Detroit's postseason fortunes took a turn as the Wings knocked off the Calgary Flames in six games in the first round, and bumped the San Jose Sharks in six games in round two. Detroit's Stanley Cup hopes would end in the Western Conference Final as the Red Wings would drop the series in six games to the eventual Stanley Cup champion Anaheim Ducks. Nicklas Lidstrom won his second straight Norris Trophy and fifth overall. Pavel Datsyuk would also claim his consecutive Lady Byng Trophy.

Stanley returned to Hockeytown in 2008 after a strong regular season campaign. The Red Wings topped 50-wins for a third consecutive season (54-21-7) and captured the Presidents' Trophy for the sixth time in franchise history. Detroit would dispose of the Nashville Predators in round one (six games), sweep the Colorado Avalanche in round two, defeat the Dallas Stars in the Western Conference Final (six games) and knock off the Pittsburgh Penguins in six games in the Stanley Cup Final to win the 11th Cup in franchise history.

Nicklas Lidstrom became the first European-born captain to win the Stanley Cup. Henrik Zetterberg was named playoff MVP, joining Lidstrom as the only European players to win the award. Lidstrom would take home his third consecutive Norris Trophy and sixth in the last seven seasons played. Pavel Datsyuk captured both the Selke Trophy and his third straight Lady Byng Trophy. Chris Osgood and Dominik Hasek were awarded the Jennings Trophy for fewest goals allowed during the regular season (184).

The Red Wings inked star forward Marian Hossa to a one-year deal during the offseason, positioning Detroit for another trip to the finals. The Wings did just that, setting numerous NHL records en route to a back-to-back trip to the Stanley Cup Final in 2008-09. After earning two points in a victory over the Columbus Blue Jackets on March 15, 2009, Detroit became the first team in NHL history to reach the 100-point plateau in nine consecutive seasons, passing the Montreal Canadiens, who had eight straight 100-point seasons from 1974-75 through 1981-82. The Red Wings claimed their fourth straight 50-win season, marking only the third time in NHL history a team has gone four consecutive years with 50 wins.

Detroit swept the Columbus Blue Jackets in the opening round of the postseason, but it took the Red Wings seven games to defeat the Anaheim Ducks and advance out of the second round. The Red Wings dispatched the Chicago Blackhawks in five games during the Western Conference Final for the right to face off against a familiar foe for the Stanley Cup. The Wings suffered a disappointing 2-1 loss at home in Game 7 against the Pittsburgh Penguins, preventing Detroit from repeating as champions. Pavel Datsyuk earned his second straight Selke Trophy and fourth consecutive Lady Byng Trophy, becoming the first player in NHL history to do so.

RED WINGS ALUMNI CELEBRATE GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY BY GIVING BACK

by: Dave Goetze

Since 1959 the Red Wings Alumni have been "skating for a cause." During our 50th Anniversary season, we have had the good fortune to be a part of many fund raising efforts for various charitable organizations in Michigan, Canada, and throughout North America.

Some of the highlights of the season include having the Stanley Cup as part of our Pro Stars Tour that was featured at a charity game in Port Huron, Michigan. The snow was deep, the traffic was snarled, but the glory of the Lord Stanley shown upon the faces of fans young and old as many waited in line for up to five hours to get their picture with the Cup and their favorite Red Wing hero of yesterday. Former Red Wing legends were on hand including Ted Lindsay, Alex Delvecchio, Bill Gadsby, Dave Lewis, Joey Kocur, Dino Ciccarelli, Bob Probert, and Mickey Redmond to name a few.

The crowd was also graced by the female presence of the Voice of the Red Wings, Karen Newman, and the only female goal tender in the National Hockey League, Manon Rheaume, formerly of the Tampa Bay Lightning. Title Sponsor, Datapak Services Corporation, and Presenting Sponsor, Carhartt, provided the financial backing to make this game and the entire Pro Stars Tour series a huge success.

The Alumni traveled to Kalamazoo, Muskegon, Fort Wayne, Flint, as well as, Port Huron on an International Hockey League Pro Stars Tour. These charity exhibition games were played before each IHL contest with fans staying for two great hockey games and with an added personal touch of receiving an autograph from a hockey legend. Current Red Wings Alumni President, Dennis Hextall, commented, "the fans energize all of our players. By remembering us, they provide former NHL players like myself the chance to reflect back on times gone by. Our hockey careers were special times in all of our lives." Former Red Wing Captain, 50 goal scorer and current Fox Sports Analyst, Mickey Redmond, shared, "there is noting better for me than to see a young boy or girl's face light up as they experience the joy of a hockey game. As you know, it's the greatest game there is."

In all, the former Winged Wheel veterans played in twenty-five charity hockey games raising over a million dollars for worthy causes this past season. Vice President, John Ogrodnick, shared, "on a numer of levels the experience of playing for the Alumni has been very gratifying to me. Sometimes you don't realize what you're doing and how it helps until someone walks in the alumni room and thanks us for our charitable donation. Words can't describe how good that makes you feel as a human being."

During our 50th Anniversary Golf and Dinner Benefit, the Alumni honored the memory of former Red Wing defenseman, Gary Bergman, by presenting his wife with the 2009 Humanitarian Award in recognition for his dedicated service. Also recognized at the event were long time Alumni members, John Rea, who was presented with the Iron Man Award for his 40 years of charitable service, and Tom Shaw, Team Trainer for the Alumni since 1968. All of these men are at the heart of the membership, exemplary men who give of their time and talents for the good of others who are less fortunate.

Finally, we closed our 50th Anniversary celebration with the "Captain's Edition" DVD produced in cooperation with Keepsake Video. Former Wings Captains, Yzerman, Redmond, Hextall, Lindsay, and Delvecchio summarized their thoughts on the Golden Years with the Red Wings and working with the Ilitch family. Stevie Y's closing comments on the DVD summarized the Alumni experience best, "it is a privilege to be part of a legacy like the Detroit Red Wings organization and the Alumni. It's all about giving back and making a positive difference in someone's life." Winning remarks from the longest serving Captain in NHL history, what a blessing it is to be part of the greatest alumni with the greatest franchise in professional sports history. It's all about serving others which drives the former Winged Wheel Warriors to continue "skating for a cause!" You can purchase this DVD on-line by going to www.redwingalumni.com. 50th Anniversary Red Wings Alumni books can also be purchased at this site with all funds raised going to charity.

Website: www.detroitredwings.com

CREDENTIALS: Access to Detroit Red Wings' home games and practices is available to accredited media specifically assigned to cover each event. Season credentials are granted to media covering ALL Red Wing home games.

Single-game credentials must be requested in writing, on letterhead, at least 24 hours in advance of each contest. Only previously approved media without season credentials should call the Media Hotline (313) 396-7599 at least 24 hours in advance and leave a message requesting a single-game credential as well as seating and/or photographer positions if necessary.

Single-game credentials may be picked up at the Security Desk inside the West Gate of Joe Louis Arena beginning two hours prior to game time.

SEATING: Credentials permit access to the press room and to both team's post-game locker rooms. Every effort will be made to accommodate all media with seating in the press box. However, due to space limitations, seating in the press room may be required. The Joe Louis Arena press room is located street level of the building near the East Gate and is available for all Red Wing home games.

All media attending games are asked to phone the Media Hotline (313) 396-7599 at least 24 hours in advance to request press box seating.

PRACTICE SCHEDULES: The Media Hotline will be updated daily with upcoming practice times and event information. When available the visiting team's practice times in Detroit will be included in the message as well.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Photo credentials will be issued on a single-game basis. Only those photographers on assignment from approved media outlets will be permitted access to Red Wings' games and practices. Photo Editors must call the Media Hotline prior to 2:00 pm on game days with the names of photographers who will be shooting the game.

Credentialed Photo runners are not permitted to stand on or near any shooting positions on the arena concourse or inside the bowl at any time during the game. Failure to comply with this policy will result in immediate removal from Joe Louis Arena along with confiscation of that individual's game credential.

FREELANCE PHOTOGRAPHERS WILL NOT BE ISSUED CREDENTIALS.

Photographers must shoot from designated photo areas only. Photo positions are assigned by the Red Wings' PR office and posted in the press room approximately two hours prior to game time. Photographers requesting specific shooting locations must phone the Media Hotline (313) 396-7599 no later than 2 p. m. for evening games and 10 a. m. for matinees.

Photographers desiring to rent or use their own strobes must contact the Detroit Red Wings Public Relations Department at least 48 hours in advance of each contest.

TELEVISION COVERAGE: All local television stations are prohibited from shooting and distributing footage inside the Joe Louis Arena bowl beginning 30 minutes prior to each contest and until all broadcast television rightsholders have signed off the air. Footage from the arena property and outer mezzanine area is permitted as long as the ice surface does not appear in any way in the shot.

Television cameras in the bowl are limited to natural arena light whenever players are on the ice surface.

All local television stations desiring to shoot inside Joe Louis Arena must request to do so in advance through the Detroit Red Wings Public Relations Department.

RADIO COVERAGE: All non-rightsholder radio stations are not permitted to broadcast live from inside Joe Louis Arena beginning 30 minutes prior to each contest and until all rightsholders have signed off the air.

PRESS ROOM: A press room for pre-game meals and working is available between the East Gate and the locker rooms. A pre-game meal will be served 90 minutes prior to each contest. There is a minimal charge for the media. A work area with electrical outlets, credit card pay phones and televisions is available in the press room.

PARKING: Limited parking for credentialed media by pass list is available at no charge in the media section of the city-owned Joe Louis Arena Garage. Please include your parking requests when making credential requests to the Red Wings Public Relations Department.

Media parking is extremely limited and NOT GUARANTEED.

TICKETS: A limited number of single-game tickets to Red Wings home games are available for purchase by members of the media only. Please contact the Senior Director of Communications John Hahn for ticket requests well in advance of the desired game.

RED WINGS IN THE COMMUNITY

The Red Wings organization is committed to making a difference in the lives of those less fortunate in the Metropolitan Detroit area. Players and staff members embrace the opportunity to be leaders in our community and volunteer tremendous amounts of their time to numerous local charitable groups.

Detroit Red Wings Foundation

Created in 2005, The Detroit Red Wings Foundation invests in the future of our community by providing funds and resources to worthy causes that contribute to the growth of the sport of hockey.

The Red Wings players and staff participate in several major fundraising events throughout the season including the annual Toast of Hockeytown winetasting, Motor City Casino Red Wings Texas Hold'em Tournament, Training Camp Golf Tournament and Dinner and the Red Wings Wish Club partnership with Children's Hospital of Michigan. Through these events and several other fundraising activities throughout the year, the Red Wings raise over $400,000 annually.

Among the organizations benefiting from grants and donations in 2008-09 were the Salvation Army STRIVE Hockey Program, the Macomb-Oakland Regional Center Adaptive Hockey Program, the Variety FAR Conservatory of Therapeutic and Performing Arts Adaptive Hockey program, the Michigan Amateur Hockey Association and the Detroit Hockey Association.

For the second year, the Detroit Red Wings Foundation will open its doors to local nonprofit organizations through the charity 50/50 raffle program. At every home game this season, volunteers will sell 50/50 raffle tickets to fans along the Joe Louis Arena concourse. The total amount raised each night is divided between the raffle winner, the Detroit Red Wings Foundation and the participating nonprofit group. Nearly $11,000 was donated back to charitable organizations last season over the course of 12 games.

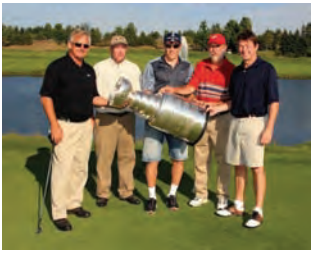
The premier team fundraising event is the Toast of Hockeytown, a wine tasting event to benefit the Detroit Red Wings Foundation. The event has raised approximately $1 Million in its nine-year history. Held on the ice at Joe Louis Arena, guests at this annual fundraiser enjoy over 70 varieties of wine, fine food and the opportunity to mingle with the entire team, coaching staff and alumni.

Patrons can also bid on a wide variety of items in the silent and live auctions including unique autographed hockey memorabilia, jewelry, spa packages and even a road trip for two with the team on Red Bird II.

The Red Wings Foundation also awards monetary grants to deserving local organizations which fit into the foundation mission and focus areas of youth hockey development and growth; education and recreation. Past grant recipients include: Camp Quality of Michigan, Children's Hospital of Michigan, The Detroit Hockey Association, Hockey In The Hood, Make-A-Wish Foundation of Michigan, Gladwin Area Hockey Association, Macomb-Oakland Regional Center, The Variety FAR Conservatory of Therapeutic and Performing Arts, Michigan Amateur Hockey Association, The Salvation Army's STRIVE hockey program, and the YMCA.

Ilitch Charities

The Red Wings Foundation is an affiliate of Ilitch Charities, a non-profit organization that invests in our community's future by supporting innovative and measurable programs in the areas of community development, human services, education and recreation through contributions from the Ilitch companies, their colleagues and the generosity of others. This past August, several current players, staff and alumni joined local and national sports, media and entertainment celebrities in the second-annual Ilitch Charities Celebrity Golf Classic held at the prestigious Oakland Hills Country Club. Proceeds from the event have been used to benefit The Detroit Symphony Orchestra, Focus: HOPE, Mosaic Youth Theatre and 2-1-1 on the Go!.



Detroit Red Wings Community Relations

The Detroit Red Wings Community Relations department coordinates fund raising efforts for local charities by organizing player appearances and full team events, as well as fulfilling over 3000 donation requests annually for local fundraising events. Players and staff members also serve as team spokesmen for local organizations, lending their name, time and money to various causes.

The Red Wings raise funds for specific health-related issues as well. For the third consecutive year, the Red Wings will hold a breast cancer awareness night in October. The past two events raised more than $64,000 for the same cause In addition to the team efforts which benefit the Detroit Red Wings Foundation, the team also participates in charitable efforts including the Training Camp Golf Outing to benefit the Friends of Centre I.C.E. in Traverse City, MI, site of the team's annual training camp. Currently in its 11th year, the event has raised over $1 Million for charity.

Many players and staff are committed to select charities on a personal level. Head Coach Mike Babcock is focused on research for pediatric brain tumors. Babcock became closely involved with this cause after the son of a former neighbor succumbed to a brain tumor in 2004. The leading cause of cancer related deaths in children, there are more than 120 types of brain tumors that can affect children. As part of his involvement, Babcock appears at a variety of events to raise awareness for pediatric brain tumors and works with Children's Hospital of Michigan to fund research for the treatment and prevention of the disease. He also donates two tickets to each home game to a child fighting cancer. Babcock personally meets with the child and a parent prior to each game – often establishing long lasting friendships with the families.

Every season, the Red Wings host hundreds of special guests at team practices and games. Most often, sick or disadvantaged children and adults are invited to meet their favorite players through the Make-A-Wish Foundation or similar wish-granting organizations.

During the season, the team visits Children's Hospital of Michigan to brighten the spirits of young patients. Many players make individual trips throughout the year, and the entire team makes an annual holiday visit, meeting with hundreds of children and their families for one special day each winter. This tradition has been in place for more than two decades.

Each winter the Detroit Red Wings and Joe Louis Arena host High School Journalists Day. This event gives aspiring journalists the opportunity to experience a day in the life as a professional journalist. Students from across the state are invited to Joe Louis Arena to watch the team practice, treated to lunch and then participate in a press conference style question and answer session with a panel of professional media members as well as Red Wings players. After the event, students are encouraged to submit their stories to a writing contest with prizes ranging from tickets to a Wings home game and the grand prize winner having his or her story printed in an issue of the Wings official magazine, Inside Hockeytown.

The Red Wings and Children's Hospital also team up for the Red Wings Wish Club. For a small donation to Children's Hospital of Michigan, fans can have a special message displayed on the Joe Louis Arena Jumbotron at Wings home games. Thanks to the success of this program and the generosity of Red Wings fans, proceeds from this project have been dedicated to select areas within the hospital. A family waiting area in the Pediatric Intensive Care Unit was the first area renovated and named the Hockeytown Kids' Wing – a Red Wings-themed section that features memorabilia, murals and other Wings friendly attractions. The main lobby of the hospital features the Red Wings Play Zone, a hockey rink themed sitting area with a Zamboni, interactive games and features very similar to Joe Louis Arena.

The waiting room of the Hematology/Oncology Clinic further showcases the tremendous partnership between the Red Wings and Children's Hospital. Welcoming patients as they enter the waiting area is an octopus encouraging them to participate in a variety of interactive games and Wings-themed furniture help make children more comfortable as they wait for treatments. The presence in this area marks an emotional tie to many of the special children Detroit Red Wings team members have met over the years. For more information on the Red Wings Wish Club, or to schedule a wish, call Children's Hospital of Michigan at (313) 745-5024.

The Red Wings and their fans join forces with local non-profit organizations to collect a variety of items and funds to help some of the less fortunate in the Detroit area.

In October, the team hosts collections of smoke detectors as part of Fire Prevention Month in the metro Detroit area. Fans are asked to bring a new smoke detector with batteries to games in exchange for the chance to win an autographed item from a Wings player. Forward Henrik Zetterberg serves as the spokesman for this program and generously matches the amount of detectors donated during the initiative. Working with local fire departments and agencies throughout the state, the collected detectors are donated to low income residents throughout the Metro Detroit area.

The Wings also hold clothing drives to collect winter wear items for the annual Motor City Mitten Madness Campaign. This year will mark the 15th anniversary of the program as the team continues its partnership with the Detroit Medical Center's Detroit Receiving Hospital's Burn Center to benefit Detroit's adult homeless population with donations being distributed to local shelters to prevent frostbite. The initiative collects thousands of items each year.

Annual toy collections are a fan favorite during the holiday season. Teaming up with the U.S. Marine Corps Reserve and The Salvation Army, the team hosts collections at select games near the holidays to collect new, unwrapped toys to be given to less fortunate children.

For the fourth consecutive year, the team will host The Salvation Army's Red Kettles at select home games in December. Executive Vice President and General Manager Ken Holland serves as the honorary chairman of the annual Red Kettle campaign, and assisted The Salvation Army in meeting it's goal of $8.5 Million for last years campaign.

HOW TO FIGURE...

 NOTE: No individual skater/goaltender statistics apply for the shootout*

Assist: An assist is awarded to the player or players (maximum of two) who touched the puck prior to the goal, provided no defender plays or possesses the puck in between.

Game Played: A player receives credit for playing in a game if: i) he steps on the ice during time played or; ii) serves any penalty.

Game-Winning Goal: After the final score has been determined, the goal which leaves the winning Club one goal ahead of its opponent is the game-winning goal (example: if Team A beats Team B 8-3, the player scoring the fourth goal for Team A receives credit for the game-winning goal).

Goal: A goal is awarded to the last player on the scoring Club to touch the puck prior to the puck entering the net.

Goals-Against Average: Multiply goals allowed (GA) by 60 and divide by minutes played (MINS).

Goaltender: A goaltender receives a "W" for a win in regulation, overtime or shootout; an "L" for a loss in regulation; or an "OT" for a loss in overtime or shootout.

Penalty-Killing Pct.: Subtract total number of power-play goals allowed from total number of shorthanded situations to get total number of power-plays killed. Divide the total number of power-plays killed by the total number of shorthanded situations.

Plus-Minus: A player receives a "plus" if he is on the ice when his Club scores an even-strength or shorthand goal. He receives a "minus" if he is on the ice for an even-strength or shorthand goal scored by the opposing Club. The difference in these numbers is considered the player's plus-minus statistic.

Power-Play Goal: A goal scored by a Club while it has a manpower advantage due to an opponent's penalty. Following are some examples of what is and is not considered a power-play goal:

- if a Club has an advantage on a minor penalty starting at 2:02 of the period and it scores at 4:02, the goal is not a power-play goal.
- if a Club scores on a delayed penalty, the goal is not a power-play goal.
- if a Club has an advantage due to a five-minute major or match penalty, that Club is always credited with having one more advantage than the number of power-play goals it scores during that advantage, because the penalty does not expire. A new advantage begins after each power-play goal. For example, if Team A scores three goals during a major penalty, it is credited with four advantages.
- if a Club is on a power-play for any length of time, it is considered to have had an advantage.
- if a minor penalty is incurred by a Club on a power-play due to a major penalty, a new advantage is given to that Club when its minor penalty expires, provided the opponent's major penalty is still in effect.

Power-Play Percentage: Total number of power-play goals divided by total number of power-play opportunities.

Save Percentage: Subtract goals allowed (GA) from shots against (SA) to determine saves. Then divide saves by shots-against.

Shooting Percentage: Divide the number of goals scored by the number of shots taken.

Shorthand Goal: A goal scored by a Club while it is at a manpower disadvantage. The same cases apply for shorthand as for power-play goals, but in the opposite manner.

Shot on Goal: If a player shoots the puck with the intention of scoring and if that shot would have gone in the net had the goaltender not stopped it, the shot is recorded as a "shot on goal".

Shutout: If two goaltenders combine for a shutout, neither receives credit for the shutout. Instead it is recorded as a Club shutout.

Tenths of a Second: If a penalty or goal occurs in the last minute, the time is rounded off to the previous second (ex: if a penalty is called with 12.4 seconds left in a period, the time is indicated as 19:47 and not 19:48.)

Coaches Record: A coach receives a "W" for a win in regulation, overtime or shootout; an "L" for a loss in regulation; or an "OT" for a loss in overtime or shootout.

HOCKEY OPERATIONS

ORDER OF SELECTION FOR 2010 ENTRY DRAFT

The NHL's annual Draft Drawing is a weighted lottery system to determine the order of selection for the first 14 picks of the 2010 Entry Draft.

The 14 teams that did not qualify for the Stanley Cup Playoffs, or clubs that acquired those clubs' 2010 first-round draft picks, participate in the Drawing.

The Club selected in the drawing may not move up more than four positions in the draft order, thus only the five Clubs with the fewest regular-season points have the opportunity to receive the first overall selection.

No Club can move down more than one position as a result of the DRAFT DRAWING.

In the first round of the 2010 Entry Draft, the order of selection is as follows:

- The first 14 selections, as determined by the Draft Drawing (see above)
- Clubs eliminated in the first two rounds of the 2010 Stanley Cup Playoffs, regular-season division winners excluded, in inverse order of points
- Regular-season division winning clubs eliminated in the first two rounds of the 2010 Stanley Cup Playoffs, in inverse order of points
- Clubs eliminated in the 2010 Conference Finals, in inverse order of points
- Stanley Cup finalist
- Stanley Cup champion

In the second and subsequent rounds the order of selection is as follows:

- Non-playoff clubs in inverse order of points;
- Clubs eliminated in the first two rounds of the 2010 Stanley Cup Playoffs, regular-season division winners excluded, in inverse order of points
- Regular-season division winning clubs eliminated in the first two rounds of the 2010 Stanley Cup Playoffs, in inverse order of points
- Clubs eliminated in the 2010 Conference Finals, in inverse order of points
- Stanley Cup finalist
- Stanley Cup champion

ELIGIBILITY FOR CLAIM

All Players age 18 or older are eligible for claim in the Entry Draft, except:

- Player on the Reserve List of a Club, other than as a try-out;
- Player who has been claimed in two prior Entry Drafts;
- Player who previously played in the League and became a Free Agent pursuant to this Agreement;
- Player age 21 or older who: (A) has not been selected in a previous Entry Draft and (B) played hockey for at least one season in North America when he was age

18, 19, or 20 and shall be eligible to enter the League as an Unrestricted Free Agent pursuant to Article 10.1(d); and 18

- Player age 22 or older who has not been selected in a previous Entry Draft and shall be eligible to enter the League as an Unrestricted Free Agent pursuant to Article 10.1(d).

UNSIGNED DRAFT CHOICES

A player aged 18 or 19 who was selected in the first three rounds of the Entry Draft and who was not signed by his NHL Club may not be retained by the Club and must be returned to his junior Club no later than the day prior to the opening of the NHL regular season.

A player aged 18 or 19 who was selected in the fourth or subsequent rounds who has not been signed by his NHL Club may not be retained by his Club and must be returned to his junior Club no later than the fourth day prior to the opening of the NHL regular season.

ENTRY LEVEL PLAYERS

Players 18 through 21 years of age when signing their first contract must remain in the entry-level system for a period of three years; players age 22 and 23 when signing their first contract are in the entry level system for two years; while those age 24 when signing their first contract are in the entry level system for one year. Age is defined as the player's age on September 15 of the calendar year in which he signs the contract, regardless of his actual age on the date he signs such contract.

In the event that a signed 18 or 19-year-old player does not play a minimum of 10 NHL games (regular season and/or playoffs) in his first season under contract, the term of his player contract and his number of years in the entry level system will be extended for a period of one year. The exception to this is a 19-year-old player who turns 20 years of age between September 16 and December 31 in his first contract year.

In the event that a player signs his first contract at age 18 and has had his Player Contract extended for one season already, and such player does not play at least 10 NHL games (regular season and/or playoffs) in the second season under that player's Player Contract, then the term of his Player Contract and his number of years in the Entry Level System shall be extended for one additional year.

23-MAN ROSTER

There may be a maximum of 23 players on each Club's playing roster at any one time from the commencement of the NHL regular season through the trade deadline. Prior to the start of the season, each Club must submit to the NHL its "Opening Day Playing Roster" which shall be comprised of not more than 23 players. Each Club must have a roster of at least 20 players, composed of 18 skaters and two goaltenders. Players on Injured Reserve do not count in the 23-Man Roster limit.

INJURED RESERVE LIST

In the event that a player is injured and a Club wishes to place him on the Injured Reserve List, the Club must follow these procedures.

A Club may place a player on the injured reserve list if such player is injured, disabled or ill and unable to perform his duties as a hockey player after having passed the Club's initial physical examination in that season.

A player who has an injury that renders him physically unable to play for a minimum of seven days after that date of the injury can be placed on the Club's Injured Reserve List. Once a player is placed on the injured reserve, the Club may replace said player on its NHL roster with another player. All determinations that a player has suffered an injury warranting injured reserve status must be made by the Club's medical staff and in accordance with the Club's medical standards.

A player placed on Injured Reserve is ineligible to compete in NHL games for a period of not less than seven days from the date of injury.

Players on Injured Reserve may attend Club meetings and meals, travel with the Club and participate in practice sessions.

Players on Injured Reserve are prohibited from appearing in games, participating in pre-game warm-ups with their Clubs, or dressing in game uniforms on game days.

REGULAR SEASON WAIVERS

For purposes of Regular Waivers and Re-Entry Waivers, the five (5) year exemption for an 18 year old skater and the four (4) year exemption for a 19 year old skater shall both be reduced to three (3) years commencing the first season that the 18 or 19 year old skater plays in eleven (11) NHL Games or more. The next two (2) seasons, regardless of whether the skater plays any NHL Games in either season, shall count as the second and third years toward satisfying the exemption. For purposes of Regular Waivers and Re-Entry Waivers, the six (6) year exemption for an 18 year old goalie and the five (5) year exemption for a 19 year old goalie shall both be reduced to four (4) years commencing the first season that the 18 or 19 year old goalie plays in eleven (11) NHL Games or more. The next three (3) seasons, regardless of whether the goalie plays any NHL Games in any of those three (3) seasons, shall count as the next three (3) years toward satisfying the exemption.

The first season in which a Player who is age 20 or older plays in one (1) or more Professional Games shall constitute the first year for calculating the number of years he is exempt from Regular Waivers and Re-Entry Waivers.

A Player 25 years old or older who plays in one (1) or more Professional Games in any season shall be exempt from Regular Waivers and Re-Entry Waivers for the remainder of that season.

TIE-BREAKING PROCEDURES

At the conclusion of the regular season, the standing of the teams in each Conference shall be determined in accordance with the following priorities in the order listed:

- First place in each of the three (3) divisions seeded 1, 2, and 3.
- The higher number of points earned by the Club.
- The greater number of games won by the Club.
- The higher number of points earned in games against each other among two (2) or more Clubs having equal standing under priority (b) and (c) **
- The greater differential between goals scored for and against by Clubs having equal standing under priority (d).

 NOTE: For the purpose of determining standing under priority (d) for two or more tied Clubs that have not played an even number of games with one or more of the other tied Clubs, the first game played in the city that has the extra game (the "odd game") shall not be included. When more than two Clubs are tied, the percentage of available points earned in games among each other (and not including any "odd games") shall be used to determine standing.
